

Pharmacy

Key transferable skills

Skills you will obtain in this degree that are transferable across many career options.

COMMUNICATION

ANALYTICAL THINKING

PROBLEM SOLVING

PLANNING
AND ORGANISING

TEAMWORK

QUANTITATIVE LITERACY

Career pathways

Graduates will be well placed to find employment in a range of roles directly or after further study. Common roles include:

- Community pharmacist
- Clinical pharmacist
- Pharmacy manager
- Hospital pharmacist
- International pharmacy positions
- Medical information specialist
- Pharmacy business consultant
- Pharmacy analyst
- Quality assurance supervisor
- University academic
- Researcher
- Medical representative

Major employers

Graduates have found jobs in a range of organisations including:

- Hospital pharmacy departments
- Community pharmacies
- Universities
- Australian Defence Force
- Royal Flying Doctor Service
- Therapeutic Goods Administration
- Baxter Australia
- Novartis Australia
- Johnson & Johnson
- Bayer AG
- Abbott Laboratories
- Procter & Gamble

Source: LinkedIn Live Alumni, Burning Glass Technologies

Discipline specific/technical skills

Technical skills that you will develop as part of your course.

- Deliver medicinal and therapeutic care
- Prepare and dispense medications/therapeutic products
- Counsel patients and customers
- Apply principles of quality use of medicines
- Plan and conduct pharmaceutical research
- Apply legal and ethical principles
- Critically evaluate current scientific information

Boost your employability

BROADEN YOUR SKILLS

CONNECT WITH INDUSTRY

MANAGE YOUR CAREER

GAIN EXPERIENCE

'Pharmacy gave me the skills and the knowledge to work in many different settings. Since graduating, I have owned my own pharmacy, worked in the pharmaceutical industry and am now a pharmacy academic. This course enhanced my communication skills which helped me to stand out from others.'

Jason Buccheri

Consultant Pharmacist and Academic – La Trobe University