

Screen, Media and Performance

Key transferable skills

Skills you will obtain in this degree that are transferable across many career options.

COMMUNICATION

WORK WITH DIGITAL TECHNOLOGY

FLEXIBILITY AND CREATIVITY

STORY TELLING

CRITICAL THINKING

CULTURAL AWARENESS

Career pathways

Graduates will be well placed to find employment in a range of roles directly or after further study. Common roles include:

- Filmmaker
- Screen content producer
- Film and media educator
- Journalist/editor
- Stage management and production roles
- University lecturer
- Digital communications consultant
- Film and theatre festival program manager
- Creative industries manager/administrator
- Arts practitioner – film, theatre, media related
- Community arts facilitator
- Digital/media artist

Major employers

Graduates have found jobs in a range of organisations including:

- Television, film and radio studios
- Media networks
- Theatre organisations
- Advertising agencies
- Tertiary education sector
- Secondary education sector
- Government departments and agencies
- Community arts organisations
- Public relations and communications agencies
- Sports clubs and organisations
- Community theatre projects
- Event and cultural management centres

Source: LinkedIn Live Alumni, Burning Glass Technologies

Discipline specific/technical skills

Technical skills that you will develop as part of your course.

- Confident public written and oral communication
- Creative and professional collaboration in teams
- Creative problem solving
- Digital technology literacy
- Project management
- Multi-platform production
- Storytelling and narrative development

Boost your employability

BROADEN YOUR SKILLS

CONNECT WITH INDUSTRY

MANAGE YOUR CAREER

GAIN EXPERIENCE

'Highly skilled theatre professionals that supported my creativity...changed my life!'

Kate – Honours student

'Skills like video editing and social media content generation gave me an edge when looking for jobs'

Jess – Journalist