

Environmental Humanities

Key transferable skills

Skills you will obtain in this degree that are transferable across many career options.

COMMUNICATION

BIG PICTURE AWARENESS

CULTURAL LITERACY

SYNTHESISE INFORMATION

ONGOING LEARNING

ADAPTABILITY
TO CHANGE

Students really enjoy thinking and reflecting about the natural world in different ways and find their engagements with it also change. It is also great to see students engaging creatively in ways to change behaviours as their awareness of the ethical and political context of environmental change develops.

Lecturer
Environmental Humanities

Career pathways

Graduates will be well placed to find employment in a range of roles directly or after further study. Common roles include:

- Environmental educator
- Journalist/editor
- Environmental advocate
- Policy adviser
- Research assistant
- Teacher/lecturer
- Sustainability consultant
- Natural resource manager
- Community engagement coordinator
- Advertising executive
- Creative artist
- Marketing manager

Discipline specific/technical skills

Technical skills that you will develop as part of your course.

- Critically engage in debates about the environment
- Evaluate environmental issues in a changing landscape
- Multi-disciplinary approaches to environmental issues
- Advanced interpersonal and written communication skills
- Well-developed research and report writing techniques
- Flexibility and creativity in identifying/applying solutions
- Public speaking and presentation experience

Major employers

Graduates have found jobs in a range of organisations including:

- Government departments and agencies
- Media and publishing networks
- Primary and secondary schools
- Environmental Protection Authority
- Universities
- Research institutes
- Environmental activist groups
- Conservation organisations
- Sustainability consulting companies
- Advertising agencies
- Marketing and communications consultancies
- Resource management organisations

Source: LinkedIn Live Alumni, Burning Glass Technologies

Boost your employability

BROADEN YOUR SKILLS

CONNECT WITH INDUSTRY

MANAGE YOUR CAREER

GAIN EXPERIENCE